My

Dear Miss Parkhurst

First of all I ask you to forgive me, if I am told in writing to you. but the truth will always count.

Very well, you will have to take your mind back for a good number of years, when it was the first and the last time I have seen you.

However, I am no great scholar but I do want you to know, that if your Mother is not proud of you, I am I all over your news upon marriage, as they were like mine when I was a girl only I was brought up to say and feel it to be such a disgrace if you had a baby unmarried, but if I could have my young days over again, I would have the baby, and as you say, with out marriage ties.

I have been married now 3 years and no baby yet. still when I heard of your good luck, I said to my hubby time yet for me. I am 45 years old

Now to let you know when and where I heard you speak.

It was near W. E. Yates' La Mills.

of course people found fault with you, and I can tell you that I got into hot water for sticking up for you, & your views. Etc. my name then was Hannah Woodhead, and I asked you to have Cup of tea with me and my Dear Mother, which you did & a chat.

How I came to know about you my next door neighbors, told me the news and of course, she thought it very foolish at your age, but when I said how glad I was to find a woman like myself. but mock, modesty on one side, she handed me the paper to read, and I have your photograph now in front of me so if at any time you can spare a letter of yourself, once your baby I shall esteem it a great favour.

Believe me to be yours

Sincerely

Hannah Patterson.

x x for baby Richard.
